Perry PTA To Seek Cafeteria For Children

Mrs. W. C. Graham, president of Perry School P.T.A., welcomed the new members of the association at the November meeting held last Tuesday by urging them to be active there by realizing the important part each member plays in the organization as a whole.

Mrs. A. B. Cowie, program chairman, presented an interesting program given by students of Mrs. Betty O'Brian's room. Those performing were Mildred Magana, announcer; "Thanks giving Song" by Gail Patterson, Rachel Chavez, Gloria Amador and Beverly Wasser; a Pilgrim recitation by soldiers, Albert Almeida, Charles Phares, Jerry French and Phillip Boyd; poem, "A Pilgrim Child," by Joyce Easterling, and an acrobatic dance by Marjorie Fickler. Also included on the program were Ethel D'Aguy and Margot Dunn, students from Redondo High School, who spoke on the reasons why the high school bonds should be given unanimous support. These students were introduced by Mr. Wm. E. Brown of the high school.

Mrs. Laura Combs' room won the attendance banner again this month. Mrs. R. Gorth, ways and means chairman, announced that Mr. Ray Reel and Mrs. J. Eyerley's room tied in the paper drive and a party was given the two rooms last Friday. The membership drive, as announced by Mrs. Alfred Lopez, member-at-large, was won by Mr. Ray Reel's room having 100% and they will have their party Friday afternoon.

Plans for contacting the School Board in regard to having a cafeteria in the school, or at least to have one, hot dish served to the children at noon, were discussed and Ray Reel, principal, and Mrs. Frank S.

Richards-Martin School Of Dancing To Hold Classes Here

Teachers from the Richards-Martin school of dancing will hold classes and give private instruction in all types of dancing at the Bettie Thomas Accordion Studio, 1915 Gramercy avenue. The Richards-Martin School of Dancing was founded by Mrs. Anna L. Richards in Wilmington in 1925, and a branch studio was opened by Mrs. Lenoir Richards Martin in Anaheim in 1932. Mrs. Anna L. Richards retired in 1941, closing her studio in Wilmington.

Mrs. Martin has one of the most picturesque studios in Southern California and has presented many colorful pageants all over the southland. Her studio is sponsored by the Elks club of Anaheim, the Orange County Council of Parent-Teachers and the Children's Welfare club of Los Angeles.

Bettie Thomas has been associated with the Richards-Martin School of Dancing since 1933 and the Accordionettes have appeared in several of their recent pageants.

JACOB KOCH RETURNS

J. J. Koch, 1527 W. 21st st., has returned by plane from a combined business and pleasure trip from Washington, D.C., and Philadelphia, Pa.

Selover were appointed to inquire into possibility of this.

The large attendance at this meeting was largely due to the fact there is now a nursery for the care of the children during the meeting. Lois Blake and Janet Lopez, students, are in charge.

P.T.A. Fathers Graduated From Red Cross Class

In a precedent-setting ceremony, seven men—husbands of Alexandria Avenue School P.T.A. members—on Monday evening, Nov. 25, were graduated from the Red Cross' famed streamlined home nursing course.

It marked the first time that a class of P.T.A. fathers have received Red Cross certificates and pins in a nursing class. Highlight of the evening was the demonstration of home nursing techniques presented by the "graduating class." With shirt-sleeves rolled up and wearing appropriate aprons, the men exhibited the skills taught them by Jane Kessler Kleinrock, R.N., class instructor. She presented the class with pins, while Bowen McCoy, Los Angeles Red Cross chapter manager, handed out the certificates.

Key addresses of the evening were given by Mrs. E. F. Douglas, president, Alexandria Avenue School P.T.A., Dr. E. T. Remmen, president-elect of the Los Angeles County Medical Association, Mrs. Joseph F. Hoof, president, 10th District California Congress of Parents and Teachers, Mrs. L. H. Montgomery, president, Wilshire Council P.T.A., Miss M. Louise Floyd, director, and Mrs. Alberta MacLennan, supervisor of nursing service for Red Cross here.

Health committee chairman of P.T.A. groups throughout the 10th District today are making plans for conducting home nursing classes, it was announced this week, joining Red Cross in the campaign to place a nursing certificate in every home in Los Angeles and vicinity.

Clubwomen Hear Fine Speakers At C. F. W. C. Forum

The Los Angeles County C.F.W.C. forum was held Tuesday, Nov. 19, at Playa del Rey. The meeting was opened by the county regional chairman, Mrs. A. M. Lindner. Mrs. Hudson, first vice president of Playa del Rey Woman's club, sang "God Bless America." The hostess for the day, Mrs. C. A. Weathers, president of the Playa del Rey Woman's club, gave the address of welcome to the one hundred members and guests of the nine clubs represented.

Mrs. Frank Lindsay, county regional supervisor, introduced Mrs. Scott J. Campbell, president Los Angeles County C.F.W.C., who talked on "Thankfulnes for America and Friends."

County Vice President Mrs. Frank Ward gave valuable hints on "Workable Values in Good Leadership." One of the good points she emphasized was "the only way to avoid criticism is to see nothing, do nothing, be nothing." Mrs. Glenn Jack, chairman of Youth Activities, presented Kenyon Smith, supervisor of youth activities in the Los Angeles schools. He pointed out that youth gains moral values through physical education and citizenship experiences, such as student government, student forums and leadership clubs.

The county chairman for safety, Mrs. Waldo Hobbs, warned of accidents in the home, then introduced Robert Gilmore, of the Los Angeles Police department, who entertained the ladies with moving pictures of traffic accidents.

A delicious turkey luncheon was served. Songs by Hilton C. Kessler, student at Southern California College of Musical Arts, were heard during the meal. The two speakers for the afternoon session were Mrs. Charles Jacobs, who spoke on "Investing Interest in Education." The paying dividends were culture, business and religion. She introduced Dr. Vera C. Wagle, who told of the methods used in teaching children health education.

Methodist Women Complete Plans For Bazaar and Dinner

A bazaar and dinner will be held Friday, Dec. 6, in the Methodist Church. The dinner will be served from 5 to 7 at $1.25 per plate for adults and 60c for children. All tickets must be purchased before Tuesday, Dec. 3. Interested persons may ask any church member for tickets or call 1148-J. The dinner committee includes Mmes. Jackson, Vita Paxton, Gray, Sinclair, dining room, Mmes. Van Deventer and Sandstrom; tickets, Mrs. W. F. Bartholomew; decorations, Mrs. Grace Hooper. Mrs. Harold Hof will serve as general chairman.

Many beautiful articles for the bazaar have been made by the women of the church, including aprons, fancy and plain, all colors and sizes, tea towels, pillowslips, children's dresses, crocheted hot pads and wash cloths, bedroom slippers, all sizes and colors, and many other lovely articles. The bazaar will open at 12 noon and continue through the evening. The committees are Mrs. Sarah-Hogue for Circle 1, Mrs. Ines Ambill and Mrs. Wehril for Circle 2 and Mrs. Vita Paxton for Circle 3.

Tuesday, Dec. 3, members of Circle 3 will meet in the home of Mrs. Eva Paxton, 931 Arlington, at 2 Mrs. James will have the devotions. Meetings of Circles No. 1 and No. 2 have been postponed.

les Jacobs, who spoke on "Investing Interest in Education." The paying dividends were culture, business and religion. She introduced Dr. Vera C. Wagle, who told of the methods used in teaching children health education.
